<<皮肤镜学Dermoscopy>>

内容概要

This portable, to-the-point resource presents straightforward guidance on all aspects of performing dermoscopy and equips readers with the tools they need to accurately interpret the results. A no-nonsense, "how-to-do-it" approach—combined with expert coverage from leaders in the field—makes this the "go-to" resource on this essential topic. 作者简介： Robert H. Johr, MD, Associate Clinical Professor of Dermatology and Pediatrics, Director, Pigmented Lesion Clinic, University of Miami School of Medicine, Miami, FL;
