<<花园设计>>

内容概要

She guides you through all the stages of designing, from assessing your garden space and designing for maximum impact, through drawing up your own garden plan, to the eventual fun of selecting the right plants. And once your garden is planted, Linda then gives you heaps of tips on how to maintain it. If you're in need of inspiration, choose from five of her most exciting garden designs showcased here. 作者简介: Linda Ross presents gardening on Better Homes and Gardens TV for the Seven Network and for Radio 2GB's Garden Clinic Show. She was designer and project manager for the long running television program Ground Force. In this book Linda takes you on an exhilarating journey to create your own beautiful garden with a sense of place.
