内容概要

Learning from Latino Teachers offers insightful stories and powerful visions in the movement for equitable schools. This compelling book is based on Gilda Ochoa ' s in-depth interviews with Latina/o teachers who have a range of teaching experience, in schools with significant Latina/o immigrant populations. The book offers a unique insider's perspective on the educational challenges facing Latina/os. The teachers ' stories offer valuable insights gained from their experiences coming up through the K-12 system as students, and then becoming part of the same system as teachers.

作者简介

Gilda Ochoa is associate professor of Sociology and Chicana/o Studies at Pomona College, where she teaches courses on education, Latinas/os in the United States, and the sociology of race/ethnicity, class, and gender.
