章节摘录

Dear Harry Porter , Hi !

Im Kevin from India. Im happy to write to you. Though I live far away from your world , I think we are a little alike. You are a great wizard (奇才) and have done lots of magical things. Although I dont do magic , I do believe in it. Well , Im also a wizard at school. And I often get As , but Im not a bookworm. I like to play jokes in class , which sometimes make my teachers angry. I also have many friends. They often get me into and out of trouble. No matter what happens , we still stay close. I almost forget to tell you that our school is almost like yours , Hogwarts. Its a special one for excellent students. We have modern classes and technology lessons. But when much is given , much is expected , so I often stay up late just to finish my homework. It really makes me tired and bored. Luckily , I can read your stories in my free time. I feel like I know you. You have a mind of your own. You are young , but you know how to take responsibility (责任) for your decisions. Also you think clearly even in danger. What a great boy you are !
