Read the following passage, then choose the best answer for each question (阅读下面的文章, 然后为每个句子选择最佳答案) : Lassie was a big dog. She was very clever. She was always helping someone. Once some bad men took some money from an old man. They tied him up with a rope and left him on the floor. They kept Lassie in another room. Lassie tried to open the door of the room. But she couldn't. There was a large window in the room, but it was too high for Lassie to reach. She pulled a chair over to window and stood on it. She pushed and pulled and pulled at the window and at last got it open. With a great jump, she got out. Lassie came back into the house and found the room where the old man was left. She untied the rope round the old man's arms and legs. Then she helped him out of the house and down the road to the nearest house. When the woman in the house heard the old man's story, she called the policemen to tell them what had happened. Soon the policemen caught the bad men. Lassie saved the old man and his money.
