前言

Welcome to the world of online , real-time , just-in-time e-commerce and e-business via the Internet-the superhighway of today ' s commerce here and abroad.whether it is e-commerce , e-business , supply chain , or networking global business , the goal of this maturing industry is to improve the quality of life and the quality of time.

There is virtually nothing today that is not affected by the electronics that bring people , technologies, and processes together in the interest of time saving, efficiency, productivity, and human comfort. Even the nonprofit sector from churches to schools , has adopted the Worldwide web to establish a presence. The Internet is the foundation for a new industrial order. It is a noose for mediocrity. The e-corporation is combining computers, the web, and enterprise software to change everything about how it operates. The Net is about choice , freedom , and control. The Net is about pull (not push) advertising and marketing goods and services. Consumers can now shop and get the truth. Retailers come to customers not like the old days and ways. Everything is an auction. It is the end of geography. Products and information about goods and services come to my place , during my convenient time. The famous scientist Albert Einstein once said. " I prefer imagination over knowledge. " If e-commerce were there during his time, he probably would have said , " I prefer creativity through imagination , knowledge through experience , and profitability through competitive advantage. " E-commerce offers all these. It is an American invention.

and will go down in history as the mark of leadership through creativity, adding value to customers worldwide. whether you are a student or a venture capitalist, you should benefit from the fundamentals and technologies that make e-commerce a reality. This is what this edition is all about.

插图：FAKES AND FORGERIES. The availability of the Internet has spawned the online sale of fake passports, Social Security cards, driver's licenses, college diplomas, birth certificates, and even IDs for police officers and FBI agents. Some of them are so authentic looking that it takes a real expert to detect the forgery. This new and growing Internet problem accounts for more than 30 percent of all fake ID documents in the United States. There are three levels of fake-ID procurement: Some web sites sell authentic-looking documents in the customer's name. Others sell templates that allow customers to make their own phony documents. The third level is the do-it-yourself counterfeiter. Thomas W. Seitz, who used phony documents to get car loans, currently is serving a three-year state prison term for the R by deception and forgery. CYBER TERRORISM. The September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks struck fear in the heart of America and made us rethink our safety, security, and well-being. The attacks of Al-Qaeda inspired a newfound sense of vulnerability, demonstrating that terrorists of all types may be knocking on our door and threatening us.
