作者简介

About the Author

Luan Changye, a tuina specialist of the traditional Chinese Medicine Section of Weihai Sanatorium, Shandong Province, was born in Gaixian County, Liaoning Province, in 1937. At sixteen he began studying tuina therapy and acknowledges more than ten tuina specialists in China as his masters. During thirty-some years of tuina research and clinical experience he has contributed twenty-four special articles to medical magazines in China and published four monographs and a set of tuina illustrations. Drawing on his own and others' clinical experience and research, he has developed six commonly used manipulations and a unique school of tuina. A renowned tuina specialist in China, he is Vice President of the Shandong Tuina Society, President of the Yantai Tuina Society and General Secretary of the Weihai Traditional Chinese Medicine Society.
