作者简介

The Author

Dung-dkar blo-bzang 'phrim-las was born in 1927 at Nying-khri-rdzong (modern Nyingchi County) to the east of Lhasa. When five years of age, he was recognized as the reincarnated Living Buddha of the Dung-dkar Monastery, and he adopted a Buddhist name, Dung-dkar blo-bzang 'phrim-las. He entered the Smed grwa-tshang (Smed Theological College) of the Se-ra Monastery to study Buddhist texts, and then studied at the Lower Tantric College and the Upper Tantric College. He received the title of Lha-ram-pa Dge-bshes (the highest Buddhist academic degree in Tibet) in 1957. He has successively held the posts of vice-chairman of the Buddhist Association of Tibet, member of the standing committee of the Political Consultative Conference of the Tibet Autonomous Region, and professor at the Central Institute for Nationalities in Beijing and at Tibet University in Lhasa.

He attended the 4th International Tibetological Seminar at Munich in July 1985.

His works include Red Annals with Annotations, 1981, Nationalities Publishing House; and A List of Rare Tibetan Books, block printing, Lhasa.
