The province of Hunan has nurtured many famous historical figures-from Emperor Yan who created the culture and history of south China to Mao Zedong , founder of the People's Republic of China ; from the poet states man Qu Yuan who dedicated his life to his country to Wei Yuan who advocated "studying enemy technology to use against the enemy ; " from Cai Lun who invented the world's first paper to Yuan Longping , the "father of hybrid rice". All are inheritors of the Hunanese spirit of patriotism and innovation-an influence on China's past , an influence on its present. They are like bright stars at night , sparkling in the sky of history , an inspiration to all both now and for the future. Below these resplendent skies , now as ever , Hunan continues to perpetuate their spirit.
