内容概要

As described by the poets of old, Hangzhou was both beautiful and affluent. Today, as the capital of Zhejiang Province, the City retains its former beauty and glory. The province is known not only for its scenic mountains and rivers, but also for its rich endowment of resources and people. It has long enjoyed the fame of being the "land of fish and rice," "home of silk and tea," "province of cultural relics" and "site of scenic attractions". Living and working in this beautiful setting, the people of Zhejiang, apart from their poetic cultural spirit, are daring and creative surfers riding the tide of China's reform and opening up in the new era, thus achieving stunning economic success.
