章节摘录

The Journal . September 30, 1659 . I poor miserable Robinson Crusoe, being shipwreck ' d , during a dreadful Storm, in the offing, came on Shore on this dismal unfortunate Island , which I call ' d the Island of Despair, all the rest of the Ship ' S Company being drown ' d , and my self almost dead . All the rest of that Day I spent in afflicting my self at the dismal Circumstances I was brought to, viz . I had neither Food , House Clothes, Weapon, or Place to fly to, and in Despair of any Relief, saw nothing but Death before me, either that I should be devourd by wild Beasts, murderd by Savages, or starv ' d to Death for Want of Food . At the Approach of Night, I slept in a Tree for fear of wild Creatures, but slept soundly tho ' it rain ' d all Night .

October 1 . In the Morning I saw to my great Surprise the Ship had floated with the high Tide, and was driven on Shore again much nearer the Island , which as it was some Comfort on one hand, for seeing her sit upright, and not broken to Pieces , I hop ' d , if the Wind abated, I might get onboard, and get some Food and Necessaries out of her for my Relief ; SO on the other hand , it renew ' d my Grief at the Loss of my Comrades, who I imagin'd if we had all staid onboard might have sayd the Ship, or at least that they would not have been all drown ' d as they were ; and that had the Men been sayd we might perhaps have built US a Boat out of the Ruins of the Ship, to have carried US to some other Part of the World . I spent great Part of this Day in perplexing my self on these things ; but at length seeing the Ship almost dry, I went upon the Sand as near as I could , and then swam on board ; this Day also it continued raining, tho ' with no Wind at all . From the 1st of October, to the 24th . All these Days entirely spent in many several Voyages to get all I could out of the Ship , which I brought on Shore, every Tide of Flood , upon Rafts . Much Rain also in these Days, tho ' with some Intervals of fair Weather : But, it seems , this was the rainy Season . Oct . 20 . I overset my Raft, and all the Goods I had got upon it, but being in shoal Water, and the things being chiefly heavy, I recoverd many of them when the Tide was out . Oct . 25 . It raind all Night and all Day , with some Gusts of Wind , during which time the Ship broke in Pieces, the Wind blowing a little harder than before and was no more to be seen, except the Wreck of her, and that only at low Water . I spent this Day in covering and securing the Goods which I had sayd, that the Rain might not spoil them . Oct . 26 . I walkd about the Shore almost all Day to find out a place to fix my Habitation, greatly concernd to secure my self from an Attack in the Night, either from wild Beasts or Men . Towards Night I fix ' d upon a proper Place under a Rock, and markd out a Semi-Circle for my Encampment, which I resolv ' d to strengthen with a Work, Wall , or Fortification made of double Piles , lind within with Cables , and without with Turf . From the 26th . to the 30th . I workd very hard in carry-ing all my Goods to my new Habitation, tho some Part of the time it raind exceeding hard . The 31st . in the Morning I went out into the Island with my Gun to see for some Food , and discover the Country , when I kill ' d a She-Goat, and her Kid follow ' d me home, which I afterwards kill ' d also because it would not feed .
