章节摘录

I purchased a jacket at Collins Toronto branch on May 10. I brought it back to my house on May 12 but when I tried it on, I found a small hole in it. I took it to Collins Vancouver branch to exchange it for another one the next day. But on my way to the shop, I lost the receipt. I explained the situation to the shop manager, Mr. David Green, but it was out of stock. Mr. Green informed me that I had to wait for three weeks to get a new one. I asked for a gift card instead of waiting for three weeks, but he refused. I found a Collins return policy written on the back of a receipt for another item. I have enclosed the jacket. Please send me your store credit in exchange. If you are not satisfied with your purchases, simply return the merchandise with your receipt to any Collins location. We will be glad to reimburse you in the local currency and at the local rate of the store where the return is made. - If you do not have a receipt, we will exchange the product for a different one or offer store credit in the form of a Collins gift card. Our gift cards will expire in three years from the date of issue and cannot be reissued if lost or stolen. Collins stores will accept returns of Collins.com and catalogue purchases no later than 14 days after purchase. The original packing slip and receipt must be presented at the time of return.
