章节摘录

1. Listen to this letter written by Sullivan Ballou, who was a soldier during the American Civil War, It was written to his wife just a week before he was killed. If I do not return, my dear Sarah, never forget how much I love you, nor that when my last breath escapes me on the battlefield, it will whisper your name. Forgive my many faults and the many pains I have caused you. How thoughtless, how foolish I have sometimes been. But, oh Sarah !

If the dead can come back to this earth and flit unseen around those they love, I shall always be with you in the brightest days and in the darkest nights. Always. Always. And when the soft breeze fans your cheeks, it shall be my breath; and as the cool air fans your throbbing temple, it shall be my spirit passing by. Sarah, do not mourn me dead: think I am gone and wait for me, for we shall meet again.

5.2 Movie One: Sweet Nothing in My Ear
5.2.1 Plot Summary 1. Listen to the plot summary of Sweet Nothing in My Ear and fill in each of the following blanks to complete the passage. Dan and Laura Miller have been married happily for several years, but their relationship begins to change when their only son, Adam, loses his hearing at the age of four. At first his parents accept his change because Laura is also deaf. Dan begins to explore the idea that with surgery and special ear implants Adam may be able to hear once again. A disagreement between Dan and Laura starts when Dan wants the surgery, but Laura does not. They take their dispute to a child custody court. In the end they decide to work things out on their own and stay together as a family.
