And even if you know how to write them, you can't use them ___ and exactly. And I did rather badly in my first English test. I was ___ about it. This made me upset and dropped my interest in English little by little. While I was in ___, my English teacher gave me much help. I knew that interest didn't mean everything and I should have some ___. I did as he said and tried many different ___ of learning English. As the days went by, I could do better and better and became more and more interested in it. During summer vacation, an old lady from Australia visited my school. She had a ___ with us. It was the first time to meet a ___. I got a little nervous at first, but soon I found it exciting to talk with her, and I learned a lot ___ her. How I wish to practice speaking English with foreigners every day!
