章节摘录

But now we are a mob. Man does not stand in awe of man , nor is the soul admonished to stay at home , to put itself in communication with the internal ocean , but it goes abroad to beg a cup of water of the urns of men. We must go alone. Isolation must precede true society. I like the silent church before the service begins , better than any preaching. How far off , how cool , how chaste the persons look , begirt each one with a precinct or sanctuary. So let us always sit. Why should we assume the faults of our friend , or wife , or father , or child , because they sit around our hearth , or are said to have the same blood? All men have my blood , and I have all mens. Not for that will I adopt their petulance or folly , even to the extent of being ashamed of it. But your isolation must not be mechanical , but spiritual , that is , must be elevation. At times the whole world seems to be in conspiracy to importune you with emphatic trifles. Friend , client , child , sickness , fear , want , charity , all knock at once at thy closet door and say , "Come out unto us. " ——Do not spill thy soul ; do not all descend ; keep thy state ; stay at home in thine own heaven ; come not for a moment into their facts , into their hubbub of conflicting appearances , but let in the light of thy law on their confusion. The power men possess to annoy me , I give them by a weak curiosity. No man can come near me but through my act. "What we love that we have , but by desire we bereave ourselves of the love. "
