章节摘录

Billy lived on a quiet street in a big city. Sometimes his mother took him to a park to play. Last Sunday, his father gave him a beautiful new ball. Billy went out to play with it. He played happily for a few minutes, but then a big dog came along. When the dog saw the ball, it wanted to play with it too. Billy picked up the ball and held it above his head. He didn't want the dog to take it away, so he ran away. But the dog jumped and caught the ball. Last Sunday was a nice day. Tom, my friend, and I went climbing. At the top of the mountain, I looked up and shouted, "Wow !

How high the mountain is !

" The whole mountain was green. The air was clean and fresh. Many small flowers were smiling among the green grass. Some little birds were flying and singing in the blue sky. We felt very excited. We began to climb the mountain. An hour later, we got to the top of the mountain. I looked down and saw the whole city. "How beautiful the city is !

" I shouted loudly. Then we took some photos, because we wanted to remember the wonderful day forever.
