章节摘录

The Astronomer I only said , "When in the evening the round full moon gets entangled among the branches of that Kadam tree , couldn't somebody catch it?" But dada laughed at me and said , "Baby , you are the silliest child I have ever known. The moon is ever so far from us , how could anybody catch it?" I said , "Dada , how foolish you are! When mother looks out of her window and smiles down at us playing , would you call her far away?" Still dada said , "You are a stupid child ! But , ba-by , where could you find a net big enough to catch the moon with?" I said , '6 Surely you could catch it with your hands. " But dada laughed and said , "You are the silliest child I have known. If it came nearer , you would see how big the moon is. " I said , "Dada , what nonsense they teach at your school! When mother bends her face down to kiss you does her face look very big?" But still dada says , "You are a stupid child. " Clouds and Waves

Mother , the folk who live up in the clouds call out to me— "We play from the time we wake till the day ends. We play with the golden dawn , we play with the silver moon. " I ask , "But , how am I to get up to you?" They answer , "Come to the edge of the earth , lift up your hands to the sky , and you will be taken up into the clouds. " "My mother is waiting for me at home , " I say. "How can I leave her and come?" Then they smile and float away. But I know a nicer game than that , mother. I shall be the cloud and you the moon. I shall cover you with both my hands , and our house-top will be the blue sky.

The folk who live in the waves call out to me- "We sing from morning till night; on and on we travel and know not where we pass. " I ask. "But , how am I to join you?"
