<<中国道教>>

内容概要

Among the five major existing religions in China (Buddhism , Taoism , Islam , Roman Catholicism and Protestantism) , Taoism is the only one originating here. Formed in the second century during the last years of the Eastern Han Dynasty (25-220) , its religious belief can be actually traced back to the remote antiquity. For this very reason , it has kept a widespread and far-reaching influence upon the Chinese people across the world. Claiming to establish a state of peace and prosperity described in the book , both the Supreme Peace Sect (Taiping) founded by the three brothers Zhang Jiao , Zhang Bao and Zhang Liang and the Five Bushels of Rice Sect (Wudoumi) by Zhang Daoling thus won wide support from peasants.
