章节摘录

W: Good morning, sir. Can I help you ?

M: I wonder if you could give me some information about active holidays. W: Active holidays, sir ?

Can you tell me exactly what you mean, please ?

around and doing nothing. I get enough of that in my office. What I mean is that I am the sort of man who enjoy swimming, water skiing, those sorts of things, I like anything to do with water and I don't mind having a rough time. I've always been used to looking after myself. When I was in the army, I used to get up at five every morning just to see the sunrise. W: Yes, sir, very interesting. Um..., active holidays, let me see. Oh, yes, what about diving, sir ?

We can offer you a fortnight off the coast of Cornwall, all-inclusive, of one week diving and one week shark-fishing with the local fishermen. It's a very good bargain. M: Shark-fishing ?

I don't think I fancy shark-fishing. Is there any chance of getting a bit of sailing in that part of Cornwall ?

W: We don't do many sailing holidays, sir. They are mostly organized by the sailing school. But rowing, canoeing, yes. Are you interested in rowing, sir ?

M: Well, I did a lot of rowing when I was at university, but I'm a bit out of practice these days. I don't think I've handled a pair of oars since I went boating on the Thames ten years ago. No, I don't think I'd care to spend my holidays rowing.
