章节摘录

I escaped last Tuesday night , and travelled two days , and built meanother shelter , in a secluded place , and obliterated my tracks as wellas I could , but she hunted me out by means of a beast which she hastamed and calls a wolf , and came making that pitiful noise again , andshedding that water out of the places she looks with. I was obligedto return with her , but will presently emigrate again , when occasionoffers. She engages herself in many foolish things : among others , trying tostudy out why the animals called lions-and tigers live on grass andflowers , when , as she says , the sort of teeth they wear would indicatethat they were intended to eat each other.
