章节摘录

Zhou Enlai was born in Huaian , Jiangsu , on March 5 , 1898. In 1917 , he finished school in Nankai Middle School , and then went to France to learn Marxist Theory. In 1922 , he joined the Communist Party of China. After that , he was active in his work and directed the Party work in Shanghai. He led the famous uprising——Nanchang Uprising on August 1 , 1927. Then he took part in the Long March. From 1937 to 1945 , he worked in South China. After the Peoples Republic of China was founded , he was elected Premier of China. Premier Zhou was well educated in his youth , which made him a man of high quality. Premier Zhou is not only a smart man , but also a very kind person. Actually , he was kind to everyone around him , whether they were important person or average ones , and meanwhile he cared much for others but little for himself. Besides his kindness , he is also famous as one of the most eloquent statesmen at home and abroad. Many of the most difficult problems in China and the world were solved by him. What deeply affect me is that all through his life , Premier Zhou led a simple life. Never did he take advantages of his position to benefit himself or his family. He put all his heart into the work and always worked until midnight. He had no time to think about himself , but only the Chinese people.
