前言

阅读既是理解和吸收语言文化信息的重要手段之一，又是语言文化信息的最便捷的输入源。我国教育部新制定的全日制义务教育和普通高级中学《英语课程标准》对学生的阅读技能从三级到九级提出了明确的要求。

在目前国内外的各种英语测试中，阅读理解所占的比重越来越大。

为此，我们特向你推荐“中学英语拓展阅读丛书”（Timed Readings Plus）。

本丛书含有以下3个子系列：社会科学（Social Studies）、自然科学（Science）及数学（Mathematics），由上海外语教育出版社从美国McGraw Hill Glencoe公司引进出版。

社会科学和自然科学各有10个分册，社会科学每册有24课，自然科学每册有25课，每课两篇阅读材料；数学有5个分册，每册有15课，每课两篇阅读材料。

本丛书语言地道，知识面广，信息量大，能有效训练学生的阅读理解能力，提高他们的阅读速度。

每课的第一篇阅读材料篇幅长400单词左右，侧重训练学生的快速阅读能力；阅读理解题则主要检查学生是否能在快速阅读后掌握阅读材料中的事实和材料所传达的思想。

每课中的第二篇阅读材料较短，着重训练学生的阅读技巧，如：从上下文中猜测生词的含义，找出作者的观点，得出中心思想，排列事件顺序，推断作者的论点等。

因此，我们认为它是一套训练学生阅读速度及阅读理解能力并能同时开拓他们视野的拓展型丛书，适合外国语学校初二及以上年级学生和非外国语学校高中学生课内、外使用。

怎样使用本系列丛书呢？

我们有以下的一些阅读策略供大家参考。

1. 阅读时，要集中注意力。

2. 用一分钟阅读标题，并思考以下问题：我是否了解这一话题？

我从这个话题中能学到什么？

这个话题引起了怎样的思考？

3. 重点阅读文章第一句和最后一句，因为第一句和最后一句往往是作者提出自己观点和总结全文观点的关键句子。

4. 快速阅读全文以获得材料所传达给你的信息。

如遇到含有姓名、日期或数字等的内容，你应该放慢速度，以便记住这些内容。

怎样才是一个快速阅读者？

章节摘录

Beyond the Child Labor in the Cities At the beginning of the nineteenth century , factory owners faced few restrictions on the way they ran their businesses. About one-third of their workers were children between the ages of 7 and 12. Gradually laws intended to develop standards for working children came into being. The first child-labor laws were enacted at the state level and usually focused on both compulsory education and determining a minimum age for employment. Subsequent laws limited the length of the workday for children. Pennsylvania , for example , limited the work-day to 10 hours for children under 12. However , government officials expended negligible (微不足道的) energy on ensuring that businesses complied with the law. In fact one group of children was left entirely unprotected by labor laws —— the children of immigrant families. By the beginning of the twentieth century , finishing work provided employment for significant numbers of women , particularly those who had recently arrived in the United States. This type of work , also called piecework , was predominandy womens work and a mainstay of the garment industry. Women sewed baby dresses or mens neckties from precut pieces of fabric and made the artificial flowers used to decorate hats. Piecework turned homes into factories that were exempt from the law , and countless children worked long hours alongside their mothers and older sisters. Manufacturers exploited the system shamelessly and paid the lowest wages they could. Embroidering a silk dress , which was a 10-day job , might generate a five-dollar payment. There was also the activity called "willowing , " in which workers added more strands to ostrich feathers used on hats to make them longer , fuller , and more graceful. The first willowers were paid 15 cents per inch , but a few months later , the pay was reduced to 13 cents. Within three years , willowers were earning only three cents per inch. In order to survive under these circumstances , pieceworkers had even their youngest children help them. In one Italian neighborhood , a three-year-old girl helped her mother sew clothes , and a pair of sisters left school at three oclock in the afternoon , only to make artificial flowers at home until nine or ten oclock at night. In another instance , a child of eight who had lived in New York for three years had never been to school at all and could speak almost no English because all she did was work.
