章节摘录

Because of her sadness, the tear had magical qualities and suddenly the ant could speak the language of human beings. The ant looked up and saw the young girl sitting in front of a huge pile of seed. "Why are you sad?" asked the ant. "I'm the prisoner of a giant," the girl told the ant. "He won't let me go until I've made three separate heaps of grain, barley and rye out of this huge pile of seed in which they are all mixed together." "That will take you a month!" the ant said, looking at the huge pile of seed. "I know," the girl cried, "and if I haven't finished by tomorrow, the giant will eat me for his supper!" "Don't cry," the ant said. "My friends and I will help you." Soon thousands of ants were at work, separating the three kinds of seeds. The next morning, when the giant saw that the work had been done, he let the girl go. And thus it was that one of her tears saved her life.
