章节摘录

It was a cool October evening. Excitement and family members _____ the hall. I was only a _____ year-old girl, but I was the center of _____. Finally, after weeks of preparation, I would _____ my hard work in a dance of performance. Everything would be _____ so I thought. I waited back-stage all _____ in my black tights with a golden belt. In a loud and clear voice, the master of ceremonies _____ that my class was next. My dance class was doing a routine on wooden boxes two feet by two feet, facing the _____. All I had to do in the next move was put one foot on the box next to mine and keep my other foot on my box. It really was an 8 move. I was concentrating SO much on _____ the huge smile on my face and holding my head up that I did not look _____ was going. I missed my partner's box altogether and _____. There I was standing on the stage floor when my classmates were on top of their boxes. I could hear giggles (咯咯笑) coming from the audience, and I felt the _____ rush to my face. I remembered my dance teacher had told us, "If you make a mistake, keep smiling SO the audience will not _____." I did my best to follow her _____ as I continued with the routine. When the curtain dropped, SO did my _____ for the evening. I _____ bitterly, tasting the salt from the tears that streamed down my face. I ran backstage, but no one could _____ me down. Recently I realized I had been a 18 that night. I was 19, but I fought the urge to run off the stage _____, I finished the routine with a smile on my face. Now when friends and family laugh about the time I slipped during a dance performance, I can laugh too. ....
