章节摘录

Many students say they understand 6 parents and teachers are so nervous about puppy love. But some think they are going too far. "We have our own thoughts and we know what to do with it," said Wang Ling. Another girl, Jiang Ting, liked making friends with boys. "Boys and girls can learn from each other," she said. "My mother asks me to study hard. However, she stops me from making friends with boys." Once Jiang told her mother she might fall in love with a boy, her mother let Jiang make her own decision. Soon Jiang found that she didn't like him any more because the boy was not as good as what she had thought before. And she did worse and worse in her subjects because she spent much on it. At last she understood the worry from schools and most parents about puppy love.
