章节摘录

That cold January night , I was growing sick of my life in San Francisco. There I was , walking home at one morning after a tiring practice at the theatre. With opening night only a week away , I was still learning my lines. I was having trouble dealing with my part-time job at the bank and my acting at night at the same time. As I walked , I thought seriously about giving up both acting and San Francisco. City life had become too much for me.

As I walked down empty streets under tall buildings , I felt very small and cold. I began running , both to keep warm and to keep away from any possible robbers (抢劫犯) . Very few people were still out except a few sad-looking homeless people under blankets. About a block from my apartment (公寓房间) , I heard a sound behind me. I turned quickly , half expecting to see someone with a knife or a gun. The street was empty. All I saw was a shining streetlight. Still , the noise had made me nervous , so I started to run faster. Not until I reached my apartment building and unlocked the door did I realize what the noise had been. It had been my wallet falling to the sidewalk. Suddenly I wasn't cold or tired any more. I ran out of the door and back to where I'd heard the noise. Although I searched the sidewalk anxiously for fifteen minutes , my wallet was nowhere to be found. Just as I was about to give up the search , I heard the garbage truck (垃圾车) pull up to the sidewalk next to me. When a voice called from the inside , "Alisa Camacho ?" I thought I was dreaming. How could this man know my name? The door opened , and out jumped a small red haired man with an amused look in his eyes. "Is this what you're looking for?" he asked , holding up a small square shape.
