章节摘录

In Beijing , Serfs Emancipation Day became the hottest topic among students in the Tibet Middle School. Many students hummed Q the old song “ Freed serfs sing in happiness ” . My grandparents were both serfs , “ said an eleventh-grader Dawa Dorje. ” They told me that they tied stones to their feet as shoes , and my granny became blind because she had no money to cure her eye illness , she said. Currently there are 810 Tibetan students in the school , whose accommodation , clothes , health care were all funded by the government. Main celebration for the holiday was held on the square in front of the Potala Palace in Lhasa , capital city of Tibet , at 10 a.m. The gathering was presided over in both Tibetan and Mandarin by Qiangba Puncog , chairman of the regional government of Tibet , who was dressed in a traditional Tibetan robe. It was attended by about 13 , 280 people.
