章节摘录

Then I received a bit Of sad news as I learned that a young friend Of mine named Stevie , who has been struggling with brain cancer , took a turn for the worse.
.Stevie is a really cool , funny kid and he has brought a smile to my face a number Of times. Luckily , 1 was able to get back to Baltimore to visit with him and I hope to go back again. News like this.in the middle Of an otherwise crazy and busy schedule really puts things in perspective and definitely brought me back to reality a bit. From Baltimore , I flew out to LA.
for the Lenos show (with Kevin Bacon and actress Hayden Pointier 1.1t was my third time on the show and it was definitely fun. From LA , I met up with the rest of the Club Wolverine crew at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs for the start of a three week training camp. Then there was another day trip to NYC or a meeting with NBC before finally getting settled in and back to work. All the traveling was pretty exhausting but 1 was able to get away from the pool for a bit and meet a lot of new people. During these few weeks , I also managed to get a little out of shape and overweight and its been good to start getting my focus back to the pool (todays schedule included 3 swim practices , 15 miles on the stationary bike, and abs) . Talk to vou later.
