The time is 9 o'clock and this is Marian Snow with the news. The German authorities are sending investigatorsto discover the cause of the plane crash late yesterdayon the island of Tenerife. The plane, a Boeing 737,taking German holiday makers to the island, crashedinto a hillside as it circled while preparing to land. Theplane was carrying 180 passengers. It's thought thereare no survivors. Rescue workers are at the scene. The British industrialist James Louis, held bykidnappers in central Africa for the past 8 months,was released unharmed yesterday. The kidnappershad been demanding 1 million pounds for the releaseof Mr. Louis. The London Bank and their agents whohad been negotiating with the kidnappers have not saidwhether any amount of money has been paid. The 500 UK Motor's workers who had been onstrike in High Town for the past three weeks wentback to work this morning. This follows successfultalks between management and union representatives,which resulted in a new agreement on working hoursand conditions. A spokesman for the management saidthat they'd hope they could now get back to producingcars, and that they lost a lot of money and orders overthis dispute.

And finally the weather. After a cold start, mostof the country should be warm and sunny. But towardslate afternoon, rain will spread from Scotland to covermost parts by midnight. &hellip;&hellip;
